

Pre-Doctoral Internship Readiness Form
The Counseling Psychology Program
University of Kansas

Students,

If you are intending to apply for internship this year, please fill out this form and submit it to the Faculty by September 30. This will facilitate the process of faculty review of your readiness for internship.

Name _____

Checklist (Circle the correct answers)

A. Coursework: Completed Not yet complete
 Remaining courses if applicable: _____

B. Comprehensive examination passed: Yes (semester/year of passing: _____) No

C. Current number of direct client hours: _____ (combined number of direct individual, group, and assessment hours): Individual: _____ Group: _____ Assessment: _____

D. Dissertation Proposal Status. Proposal defended: Yes (If yes, date: _____) No

Consistent with our program training goals and objectives and the position of APPIC and the various training councils for training and education in professional psychology, your dissertation proposal must be approved by your committee and filed with the Graduate Division before the program can attest to your readiness for internship. Such attestation is critical to your internship applications. The earliest application deadline for the internships to which you intend to apply dictates your deadline for having an approved and filed dissertation proposal. In other words, your proposal must be approved by your committee before you can apply to any internship site.
